EXAMINER'S AMENDMENT

An examiner's amendment to the record appears below. Should the changes and/or additions be unacceptable to applicant, an amendment may be filed as provided by 37 CFR 1.312. To ensure consideration of such an amendment, it MUST be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee.

Authorization for this examiner's amendment was given in a telephone interview with Charles Fish, Reg. No. 35,870 on 22 September 2004.

The application has been amended as follows:

Substitute claim 1 with the following:

1. A multiprocessor system, comprising:
 - a processing sub-system including a plurality of processors and a processor memory system;
 - a network operable to couple the processing sub-system to an input/output (I/O) sub-system;
 - the sub-system including a plurality of I/O interfaces each operable to couple a peripheral device to the multiprocessor system;
 - the interfaces each including a local memory operable to store a copy of data from the processor memory for use by a corresponding peripheral device and to invalidate the copy at a first time event;
 - a directory for processor memory system, the directory operable to identify the data as owned upon providing the copy to the I/O sub-system and to identify the data as unowned at a second time event; and wherein the invalidation of data in an I/O interface and the directory identifying the data as unowned are performed without notification messaging between the I/O interface and directory.

Substitute claim 9 with the following:

9. A method for managing data in an input/output (I/O) interface for a multiprocessor system, comprising:

- coupling a plurality of processors to a processor memory system;
- coupling a plurality of I/O interfaces to the processor memory system;
- coupling a peripheral device to each I/O interface;
- storing a copy of data from the processor memory system in an I/O interface for use by a corresponding peripheral device;
- invalidating the copy in the I/O interface at a first time event;
- identifying the data as owned upon providing the copy to the I/O interface;
- automatically identifying the data as unowned at a second time event; and
- wherein the invalidation of data in the I/O interface and identifying the data in the processor memory system as unowned are performed without notification messaging between the I/O interface and processor memory system.

Allowable Subject Matter

The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

Bourne et al., US PG PUB 2003/0120875, represents the closest available art of record. Bourne discloses a web cache, which automatically invalidates entries after the expiration of a time period. The examiner was unable to find a similar time invalidation daemon within a directory which would provide proper motivation for combination with Bourne such that the cache entry in question is both invalidated at the I/O cache and its coherency information updated at the directory without any communication occurring between the cache and directory related to the invalidation of said entry. For this reason, claim 1 and all its dependents are found allowable over the art of record.

Similarly, the examiner was unable to find an time invalidation daemon within a memory system which would provide proper motivation for combination with Bourne such that the cache entry in question is both invalidated at the I/O cache and its coherency information updated in the memory system without any communication occurring between the cache and memory system related to the invalidation of said entry. For this reason, claims 9, 18, 21 and all their dependents are found allowable over the art of record.

None of the prior art of record discloses a system where data checked out to an I/O cache, which is automatically invalidated after a period of time and where the data is provided to the I/O cache in an exclusive read-only state, in combination of the other specified claim limitations. For this reason claims 8, 17 and 22 are found allowable over the prior art of record.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
